SENATE.

SATURDAY, Jan. 3, 1846. Prayer by Rev. Mr. WELBURN.

The SPEAKER informed the Senate that he would announce the Standing Committees before the Senate adjourned to-day.

The Clerk read the Journal of yesterday. Peritions were presented by Messrs, CREN-SHAW, BRAMLETTE and EVANS.

REPORTS FORM SELEET COMMITTEES. Mr. MARSHALL. A bill for the benefit of Wm. Skaggs, Sheriff of Green; allows him till the April term of the County Court to return his delinquent list: referred to the committee on Finance.

[A message from the House of Representatives aumonneing the passage of certain bills originating in that House.] Mr. MARSHALL. A bill for the benefit of Edward Lewis, late Sheriff of Green: makes the return of a delinquent list at July term, 1845, as volid as if returned at June term : referred to the committee on Finance.

Mr. PEYTON. A bill authorizing the Breckinridge County Court to change the State road at a certain place between Brandenburg and Shawnee-

Mr. EVANS. A bill to compel the owners of dogs to pay for sheep killed by them-$3 for each sheep killed, recoverable before a Justice of the Peace; the same dog killing a second time, the owner to pay $5 for each sheep killed; the same dog killing third time, the owner liable to indictment and fine not less than $10 nor more than $20; same penalties applied to negroes and the parents or guardians of infants owning such dogs; appeal to Circuit Court allowed; but providing that no one shall be liable to proceedings, if the dogs be killed within five days after notice of the killing.

[A message from the Governor by Mr. Kinkead.] Mr. HARDIN was against all sheep-killing dogs; but he desired the reference of that bill to the com mittee on the Judiciary, and it was so referred.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. EVANS moved a resolution that two maps, presented with their report, by the Commissioners appointed to act with Commissioners from the State of Tennessee, to run a part of the boundary line between Kentucky and Tennessee commonineated with the Governor's Annual Message, and ordered to be printed, the engraved and inserted in the Journals with the report.

Mr. EVANS said the engraving of the mapsi was necessary to render the report intelligible, and on so important subject as that of a boundary between two sovereign States, the importance of having such maps in the public records was obvious. Perhaps the order to print the Report, of which the manuscript maps were an indispensable portion, itself covered the engraving and printing of the maps; but it was desirable that no misconception of the order should exist, and he therefore brought the question specifically before the Schate.

Mr PEYTON thought it better that a select committee examine the subject and ascertain whether the publication of the maps was necessary to the explanation of the report, and he made a motion to that effect, as a substitute for that of the Senator

Mr. EVANS accepted the substitute in lieu of his own resolution, which was then adopted.

Mr. CRENSHAW, leave to introduce a bill to amend the charter of the Glasgow and Scottsville Turnpike Company: referred to a select committee. Mr. HARDIN, leave to introduce a bill to amend the law relating to chancery proceedings: referred to committee on the Indiciary. Mr. HARRIS, leave to introduce a bill to change the time of meeting of the General Assembly: referred to a select committee.

Mr. PEYTON moved to dispense with the rule requiring the Governor's Message to lie on the table one day, with the view to take up the message communicated this morning: adopted. The Clerk read the message, communicating the regart of the settlement with the President of the Bank of the Commonwealth, and the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, made by Messrs. G. B. Kinkend, and H. I. Bodley, under the act of last session. Mr. KEY moved to refer the report to the committee on Finance. Mr. PEYTON proposed its reference to the committee on the Sinking Fund; and it was so referred.

Mr. NEWELL moved that the report be printed. Mr. PEYTON said the report was a voluminous document, and he hoped the motion to print would be withdrawn till the committee could examine and report upon the expediency of printing.

Mr. NEWELL withdrew his motion. Mr. HARDIN, leave to introduce a bill for the benefit of John Thomas: referred to the committee

Mr. A. BOYD, leave to introduce a bill to change the time of holding elections for Trustees of the Town of Cadiz, in Trigg county: referred to the committee on Privileges and Elections.

Mr. WALLACE, leave to introduce a bill authorizing the Boone County Court to employ its Clerk in making a general cross alphabetical index of deeds, mortgages, &c., recorded in his office: referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. BRAMLETTE, leave to introduce a bill for the beriefit of Lemuel II. Williams of Clinton county: referred to a select committee.

Mr. HENDERSON, leave to introduce a bill for the benefit of James Lewis of Rockcastle county: referred to the committee on Finance. Mr. BRAMLETTE, leave to introduce a bill for the benefit of William Davis, late Sheriff of Clinton county: referred to a select committee. Also, leave to introduce a bill for the benefit of the Clerk of the Clinton County Court: referred to a select committee. EVANS, leave to introduce a bill for the benefit of S. E. Carpenter: referred to a select com-

Also, moved that the committee on Propositions and Grievances be discharged from the consideration of a petition referred yesterday, and that it be referred to a select committee: adopted. The SPEAKER laid before the Senate the reports of the Keepers and Clerk of the Penitentiary. Mr. CRENSHAW moved that 150 copies of said reports be printed, and that they be referred to the committee on the Penitentiary: adopted. Mr. BUTLER moved to take up out of the orders of the day the bill from the House of Representatives, for the benefit of Enoch Stout and others: agreed to. ORDERS OF THE DAY. WHETHER A FINE ASSESSED IN A CASE OF VENUE CHANGED, SHALL GO TO THE BENEFIT OF THE COURT

ORIGINATING, OR THE COURT DETERMINING THE An act for the benefit of Enoch Stout and others: grants a change of venue from the Louisville City

Police Court to the Jefferson Circuit Court to said Stout, &c., under indictment for a misdemeanor in removing a slave pending a suit for freedom. Mr. BUTLER stated that the persons for whose mefit this act is designed, were under indictment in the City Court: that the case is to be tried next! Monday; that the petitioners had set forth by depositions that, owing to the personal prejudices of the City Judge against the principal one indicted, he feared an impartial trial could not be had, unless a change of venue were granted; and he therefore else I should not oppose the amendment. Whether hoped the Senate would pass the bill at once, which $500 shall go to the City Treasury or to the Jury and received the sanction of the House, so that the Fund, is too small an inquiry to delay the means of defendants might not be compelled to be tried by a justice necessary to the pratection of the precious Court in which they had stated under oath an im- rights of a freeman, in the present pressing exigence partial trial could not be lad. But now, unless the with the House in thinking these applicants for bill be pressed to its passage, justice is virtually impartial justice should have their petition granted. denied the citizen.

Mr. HARDIN had no objection to the passage of the bitl, except to the provision that the line imposed justice, moved to strike out the provision requiring in case of conviction in the Jefferson Circuit Court, the fine to go to the City Treasnry. should be paid into the City Treasury. This would be to pass a special law for this case, repealing the motion, to make way for that of the Senator from existing law, providing that fines assessed in the Adair. Courts shall go into the Jory Fond. It would be a departure from sound principle and true (Mr. Peyton) puts an interpretation on my language policy, thus to make a single case an exception mauthorized. from the operation of the general law.

There was neither justice nor policy in it. He would insist on the different. But if the claim of the city to this poor reference, unless the section objected to were strick-

Mr. BUTLER. The reasons offered in support of the proposed reference are singular and strange. A citizen alleges that, if tried before the Police Court, his rights will be prejudiced. Does the Senator ask a bonns of five hundred dollars, the lowest amount of fine assessed in such cases, for giving the citizen a fair trial? This is the sum of his proposition. It is neither more nor less than saying this petitioner shall not have a fair trial unless the State receive $500 for granting the act of justice. I do not of course mean to imply any want of personal magnanimity on the part of Senators. But I Court! I repeat, I am sincerely in favor of the change apprehend that they have hastily taken positions of venne asked; but am, at the same time, for letwhich on mature reflection, I hope they will abandon. I hope the Senater from Breckinridge will ! withdraw his motion. The fines allowed the city other. We are all one common people; and all of Louisville were given by law, for certain-I had should receive fair, equal, impartial privileges. It almost said strong reasons-but they were granted is on principle I act in urging this amendment, to for high and important considerations; that the city maintain the force and the justice and the equal should enforce an efficient police jurisdiction in aid rights secured by established law. There is time to of the administration of the criminal justice of the State. And she pays from her Treasury money into the Treasury of the State, to be appropriated to judicial purposes. This fine then, should it be assessed and collected, should not be diverted from 12 u'clock. The legislative action of the House, the the city, simply because a citizen thinking he cannot have impartial justice before the Police Judge, grossment and enrollment cannot be expected on procures a change of venne.

Mr. HARDIN. It has been my uniform practice. ever since I have had a seat in the Senate, to vote for changes of venue in cases of indictment, whether for misdemeanors or felonies. I never did, and of this movement. I supposed the Senator reprenever will, deny a citizen the means of enforcing his sented the city and presented its views. But if the right to impartial justice in the courts. I oppose this city is asleep. the Senator is wide awake. bill, solely because it proposes to divert a fine, if as- said he would rather the bill were lost than the fine sessed in a Circuit Court, from the Jury Fund, in should be diverted from the City Treasury. which the general law vests it. The Senator from Louisville talks about a bonus. He charges that we ask a bonns for the administration of our justice. Sir. I might, with unite as much propriety, retort the compliment. The city of Louisville is very liberal, and magnanimously proposes to let the petitioners have a fair trial and receive impartial justice, provided you pay her a bonus of $500 for the gracions I was influenced, sir, by principle, and by principle alone, in my opposition to the impolitic the amendment striking out the provision that the and objectionable provision of the bill. My friend, the Senator from Hardin, (Mr. HELM,) says the city will be entitled to the fine if the venne he not changed. Very well; let her have it in that case; for then the law is obeyed. The City and Circuit Courts, though they do hold their sessions under the same roof, are as distinct as the Fayette and Jefferson Courts. Let the case be tried in whatsoever Court, I insist that the fine shall go as the existing law destines. This is in accordance with sound principle and sound policy; and I cannot disregard my obligations as a Senator to be directed by their guidance. Mr. PEYTON. The Senator from Louisville says he is opposed to the bill unless the fine go to the city. He denies justice to a citizen unless the city receive a bonns for it. He tells us that, although justice cannot be administered to the petitioner in the City Court, yet he shall not have an impartial trial in the Circuit Court, unless the city receive a large sum of money. The Senator vanuts the magnanimity of his justice; but he most have his pound of flesh. this Senate willing to give the city of Louisville a onus merely for consenting that one of its citizens shall have justice in an impartial court! The Senator admits that the petitioner is entitled to a change of venue; yet he says if the venue be changed the city will lose $500. The simple question for the Senate is, ought he to have a change of venuc? If so, let him have it; and if fined, let the fine go as the stutnte directs; it by the City Court, into the Ciy Treasury; if by the Circuit Court, into the Jory What is in this case so to distinguish it from all others, as to except it from the effect of the The proposition is extraordinary. There is rank injustice in it. And when a case of this sort comes here, is Louisville to dictate the terms on which we are to provide for the administration of justice to a citizen! There is something mean and outrageous in this attempt of Louisville to fetter our justice so that she may make pecuniary gain. The Senator from Louisville will not consent that justice be done one of his constituents, nuless the city Treasury be benefited thereby. The City and Circuit Courts are as distinct as the Courts of Jetferson and Fayette, although they hold their terms under the same roof. The city is not entitled to the fine till a conviction be had; vet the Senator anticipates a conviction and demands the money in advance. He demands, as the price of his justice, that the city receive the money. Shall we sanction such It would be undignified and improper for the Senate to inquire where the fine will go. It is too small a business for us, on a question of this kind, where justice is demanded for a citizen and freeman, to be looking after the disposition of dollars and cents. Let the criminal justice of the State be fairly and impartially administered; let no citizen be convicted in a court where he believes prejudice exists against him; let the conviction or acquittal impress the victim and the public with its fairness and ustice; and let all the results of the sentence, the fine adjudged, as well as the responsibility of the adjuon, remain to the court decreeing it.

Mr. EVANS hoped the bill would be put on its passage. The trial in the City Court is set for next Monday. If time permitted the amendment of the day to introduce a bill to amend the execution laws bill as urged, he should have no wish to obstruct of 1828, which had been erroneously ascribed to the that. But if amended, it must go back to the House gentleman from Franklin. for concurrence, which, he feared, would be tantamount to its defeat and to the denial of justice to the applicant. Mr. BUTLER. The Senator from Breckinridge, I said the reference of the bill, as moved by the Senator, would defeat the object of Mr. PEYTON concurred with the Senator from the petitioner; which he construes into a declara. of the city of Louisville as displayed in this move-Mr. HELM. While it is due to the citizen to af- ment of its representative in this chamber. Sir, the the city should have the fines the law destines for ing about it. But now it is proposed to stike out the provision for leaving the fine to the city. I am entirely inpittance be now a fit question for consideration, it hould be borne in mind that it has already incurred all the expenses of this prosecution. If in this state of the case von strike ont, I am content. If the Commonwealth choose to avail herself of the preparation and expenses incorred by the city, be it so. Mr. HARDIN. A word in reply to the last remark of the Senator from Lonisville. Suppose a criminal, arrested in Henderson after the expenses of preparing for his prosecution were incurred. should get a change of venue to Daviess, with what propriety, instice or grace, could Henderson come here demanding the fine adjudged by the Daviesting established law take its course. No county, no city, no section, should receive any benefit over any procure the concurrence of the House to-day with this amendment.

Mr. EVANS. Phe adoption of the amendment will defeat the object of the petitioner. It is now concurrence in the proposed amendment, the enthis, the last day on which legislation can interpose for the protection of the rights of the citizen.

Mr. PEYTON. A word in reply to my friend from Louisville. He says the city knows nothing

Mr. BUTLER. I said no such thing in my speech. What the Senator understood me to say, was in private conversation.

Mr. SPEAKER. Then the Schator from Breckoridge cannot, in the Senate, refer to the remark. Mr. PEYTON. I was replying to what I understood was the argument of the Senator; and may have mingled his private and public discourse. I am corrected. I demand the year and nays on fine shall go to the City Treasury.

House of Representatives, Dec. 9, '45. DEAR SIR: Will you have the goodness to answer some, or the whole, of the following questions at year earliest convenience! The facts you communicate may be important on the discussion of the tariff question now pending before Congress. The Secretary of the Treasury has sent out several circulars to obtain facts on one side of the question and it is deemed but right to take measures to obtain some on the other.

The whole opposition to the protective policy is based upon the assumption of the fact (without proof.) that protective duties increase the prices of both domestic and foreign goods, and are therefore oppressive and burdensome to the people. Now, if this is proved outrue in point of fact, then the whole ground of opposition to the protective policy falls to the ground It is admitted that revenue duties, levied on articeles not produced ac manufactured in this country, may, and generally do, increase prices; but protective duties, levied on articles we can furnish at home, it is contended, ultimately reduce the prices by introducing competition, skill, machinery, and mereased supply, and that such is the universal experience on the subject. You perceive, therefore, that the whole matter resolves into a question of facts; and it is to ascertain these facts that I have taken the liberty to address Will you then be so good as to refer to your books and bills, and furnish answers to the following questions !

To Merchants, Manufacturers and others. 1. What was the price of cotton goods, sheetings, shirtings, &c., in 1516, when the minimum duties were first imposed for their protection! What was the price when the tariff of 1535 was passed, and what is the price now!

2. What the prices, at the date indicated, of calicoes, twist, yarn, &c.! and are they not reduced to about one-fourth of what they were before they were protected by the tariff of 15ffi!

3. What was the price of woollen goods, flannels, satincts, &c., at the periods above mentioned ! and are they not now furnished of domestic manufacture for less than half the price paid when exclusively imported from abroad.

4. It is estimated by the Secretary of the Treasnry, in his report, that we manufacture eighty-four millions of dollars worth of cottan goods in the United States, and I assume balf that amount of woollen-what would be the effect un prices at home and abroad, were this immense supply destroyed or withdrawn from the markets of the world!

What were the prices of window and other glass in 1816, and at the dates of the tariffs of 1824. 1528, and what now! Is glass not now supplied at me for less than one-fourth of the price paid in 1516, and for less than the amount of the duty imiosed for its protection? 6. What were the prices of iron, nails, and other manufactures of iron and steel in 1816! What at the other periods referred to, and what are the prices now! Are not many of these articles now nade at home for one-half and one-fourth of their former price?

7. What were the prices, at the above dates, of salt, paper, and of such other articles as may seem wealth, nearly enveloped in strong wrappers, can be had at this to you as calculated to show the effect of protective

Questions to Laborers and others.

15. With our present facilities of intercourse STEWART's pamphlet speech on the tariff, as well with Europe by steam, would not "free trade" reto induce prompt action by way of remonstrance on duce the wages of labor here in every department the part of the people, as to obtain speedily the in- of industry to the level of the wages of labor there, ing at 25 cents per day, in making shoes, hats, cloth, and every thing else, were admitted into our ports free of duty, must not our mechanics and labarers come dawn and work as law as they do, or give up the market? Would not this follow just as certainly as that labor on one side of a street or river, working at 25 cents, would reduce 75 cents, the labor on the other side, to its own level!

17. The Message says the tariff "imposes heavy ard unjust burdens on the firmer." Gen. Jackson "the tariff by taking 600,000 men, women, and children from agriculture, and employing them in manufactures, would create a home market for more bread stuffs than all Europe now fornishes."

Message also says, duties ought to be imosed for revenue only, and whenever they are so high as to diminish imports and revenue, they ought to be reduced to the revenue standard. Thomas Jefferson in his report to Congress says, the true system is just the reverse of this; he says Congress should select such articles as we can unanufacture or ourselves, "imposing on them doties lighter at first, but heavier and heavier afterwards as other channels of supply open." The one says, as the American supply increases, reduce the ibities so as to increase imports-the other snys, as the Amerion supply increases, increase the duties so as to diminish imports. Here Jackson and Jefferson both stand directly opposed to Polk. Which is right!

The information sought by this letter may be addressed to any friend of the tariff in Congress, straing whether the name of the writer may be used ublicly or not.

Letters are received from all parts of the conntry anxiously inquiring whether the tariff will be put down or not.

From present indications. I think the protective solicy is in great danger of being entirely over-The enemies of the tariff are endeavoring to make it a pacty question, and to rally the Ad ministration proty against it on pacty grounds; if they succeed, the protective policy and the present tariff must go down. Supposing it to have every Whig vote, it will require thirty-five Administration votes to save it. Where are they to come from! Pennsylvania, New York, and Ohio could give them-but will they do it! Not, in my judgment, nuless the people themselves come speedily to the rescue. Unless they promptly send in remonstrances, signed without distinction of party, against making the tariff a party question, and against the nodification or repeal of the tariff of 1812, I fear all will be lost; but a prompt and patriotic appeal to longress by the people, without distinction of pary, may save the country from inpending danger, and nothing else in my opinion can do it.

Yours, respectfully A. STEWART.

WEISIGER HOUSE, BY THOMAS S. THEOBALD, FRANKFORT, KY. BOSWELL'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY

16. If the productions of European labor, working at 25 cents per day, in making shoes, hats, loth, and every thing else, were admitted into our orts free of duty, must not our mechanics and la-and so indispensable in beautifying and linishing a miniature portrait in good laste.

A favorable opportunity is now offered to the ladies and gentlemen of Frankfort and vicinity, to obtain Miniature Portraits in the most perfect style of execution, which for life-like beauty, distinctness and accuracy, are acknowledged to be unequalled. Mr. Boswell has opened his Gallery at the corner of Main and Ann streets, over the Drug store of W. L. Cratcher, near the Weisiger House, where he is prepared to receive ladies and gentlemen to take their tikenesses in any kind of weather by affording him from ten to sixty seconds sitting. None need now heshate in consequence of the heretofore objection to Baguerrectypes, viz. dinness of the eyes and imperfection of colors. Mr. B., by his bate improvements, pledges himself to give the eyes and hair perfect with all their brightness and colors. Perfect likenesses are warranted and satisfiction given before any charge is made. Mr. Bowell is prepared to give instructions in his late improvements, which are unequalled, and warrants all of his miniature portraits to remain for ages unfaded.

THE BEST, AND CHEAPEST, AND MOST UNIFORM SERIES OF STANDARD SCHOOL BOOKS

TO these engaged in the important, but arduous task of instructing youth, MrGUFFEY'S ECLECTIC READERS, Nos. ONE, Two, Timere and Forr, are now presented, thoroughly revised, and greatly enlarged, with many important improvements. They are now in a permanent stereotype form, NO FURTHER ALTERATIONS being intended.

Prof. McGuffey's enthusiastic devotion to the cause of Education, his finitaste and discriminating mind, and his practical experience as an instructer, render him peculiarly fitted for the department of authorship, to which he has given his attention. The suggestions of intelligent teachers who had used the former editions of the series, and the valuable sid advorded him in the revision by an experienceal educator, have also furnished him with nunsual facilities for advantageously revising and enlarging these works.

Works.
In this series, comprising as it does, a careful selection of instructive, entertaining and moral matter, progressively arranged, and graduated with reterence to the capacity of the pupil. Prof. McGuifey has afforded to parents and teachers, a most toorough, cemplete, and efficient auxiliary in the education of youth. Its extensive use has been sufficient for the development and just appreciation of its/hamy excellencies. The result is, that indelligent teachers pronounce it the most complete series now before the public.

The intrinsic merit of Prnf. McGuffey's Eclectic Renders, hav-The intrinsic ment of Print McGuffey's Eclectic Readers, inving gained for them an unparalleled and rapidly increasing circulation, the publisher is enabled, not withstanding the heavy expenditure in their revision and enlargement, to manufacture them in the neatest and most dwarble manner, while they are now turnished at such low prices, that they are the CHEAPEST, as well as the best school reading books extant.

McGUFFEY'S RHETORICAL GUIDE; or Fifth Reader, of the Eclectic Series—480 pages, 12mo.; containing copious and minute rules, examples and exercises in articulation, inflection, emphasis accent, quantity, rhetorical pause, modulation, expression, reading of poetry, rhetorical dialogue, gesture, and their cohlateral subjects, to which are added a great variety of elegant reading lessons, (abont one half prose and half poetry) selected from the most classic writers; furnishing entertaining and instructive specimens of various styles of composition. This work has been prepared with very great care, and with reference to making it a useful, practical, and standard book; and the publisher confidently hopes, that the Rhetorical Guide of Mr. McGuffey is well adopted to supply the wants of classes in rhetorical reading in our Academies, High Schools and Colleges.

MANSION HOUSE.

MANSION HOUSE.

THE undersigned having recently purchased this well known establishment, would respectfully inform his friends and the Public, that it is now opened under his own superintendance. The house has been thoroughly repaired, enlarged and re-furnished; and he flatters himself that it is conducted in a style equal to that of any hotel in the Western country.

To strangers he would say that the house is situated in the centre of the business part of the city, che square from the Steam Boat Landing, and one from the Capital and Courts of Justice. Guesta and their buggage are taken to and from the Rosload depot and Steamboat landing in post conches, free of charge. All the Stages necessarily pass by or start from the House daily.

Southern gentlemen and their families would do well to spend at least a few days of the suntaer sesson amonest the romantic scenery of the Kenticky river and Elkhorn cliffs in the vicinity. An extensive Livery Stable, conducted by HENRY GILTNER, Esq., is connected with the House, from which conveyances of every description can be procurred at all hours.

Asheard, Nov. 16, 1845.

My Dear Sir—I received your note, with the prospectus of the Franklin Institute. You were fully authorized, by our mutual friendship and by my high opinion of your attainments and ability, to make the reference to my name.

Whilst I regret extremely our loss of you at the University, and from our neighborhood, you will carry with you to the Franklin Springs my ardent wishes for your success, fame and prosperity.

I am, truly, your friend and ob't serv't,
R. T. P. Aelen, Esq.

Professor Allien, has occupied the Chair of Mathematica.

R. T. P. ALLEN, Esq. II. CLAY. Professor ALLEN has occupied the Chair of Mathematics in Morrison College, Transylvania University, during the last three years, and as he proposes leaving the University, with a view to the establishment of an Academical Institute, under his own control, I take great pleasure in saying, that during his connection with the Faculty of Arts in Transylvania, he performed the duties of his Department, both as it regards instruction and government, with rare ability and success; and wherever he may go, I cheerfully recommend him to public confidence, as an able and indefatigable Teacher.

President Transylvania University.
